You probably never heard about Krakenhem
Only one lone survivor was found, half mad, half dead, spattering ludicrous stories Nobody believed him, so the story was forgotten
This survivor was me.

I've kept my mouth shut in fear of being shunted again But in my old age I feel the urge to tell in full detail the horrors I've witnessed

- Thursten L'Grass

Custom scenarios brought together by an overarching narrative with custom made terrain and markers
...all followed up by a nice BBQ and an evening of hanging around Bring your cult!
Bring your best potato salad!
...and bring a lot of fun!
